CHAPTER 1

THE HILLARY ENIGMA

SECRETS OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

To vice industrious, but to nobler deeds timorous and slothful.<sup>1</sup>

—John Milton on the devil Belial, Paradise Lost

To understand Hillary, we must solve the Hillary enigma. The Hillary enigma is why anyone—any American, any Democrat, even Bill—would consider voting for her. Yes, I know she wants to be the first woman president. But women across the country, in high positions and in low, are doing things, accomplishing things. This woman has been in public life for decades, and yet she has accomplished nothing.

In a classic case of nepotism, Hillary was appointed to head the Task Force on National Health Care Reform during Clinton's first term. The plan was so half-baked, and presented so poorly, that even Democrats shunned it, and the whole scheme collapsed and had to be withdrawn.

Hillary served as a U.S. senator from New York but did not propose a single important piece of legislation; her record is literally a blank slate. Liberal blogger Markos Moulitsas admits that she “doesn’t have a single memorable policy or legislative accomplishment to her name.”<sup>2</sup> Despite traveling millions of miles as secretary of state, Hillary negotiated no
